

A POEM FOR MY AWESOME CLASS

Jeepers! This is it! It's the last day of classes.
It's time to dust off your flip flops and sunglasses.
Before you log off, let's look back on our year.
You can keep this fine poem as a souvenir.

2016-2017 was awesome, that's easy to muster.
Our time together was never lackluster.
We met every week for SLASH and Math lessons
It was fun to team up in our Class Connect sessions.

|    |    |    |     |    |
|----|----|----|-----|----|
|    | 70 | 64 | 16  | 48 |
| 63 |    | 32 |     | 28 |
| 21 | 9  |    | 100 | 18 |

HULK IT UP!

In SLASH we learned about Science and History
And of course Language Arts, that isn't a mystery.
Answering questions thoroughly was never a pain,
We learned to Restate, Answer, Cite, and Explain.

We also read novels, both memoirs and fiction.
We 'Noticed and Noted' the most meaningful diction.
We learned about elements found in writing,
Quotes, traits, and metaphors all worthy of citing.

Travelling west with Laura, we weren't discouraged.
We learned about family, hardships and courage.
Don't forget Henry, and his neighborhood buddies.
His adventures with Ribsby were usually muddy.

We all became authors of real life and persuasion.
As we called for action and shared an occasion.
Using description and dialog, our memoirs were shared.
Then with evidence and facts, we convinced others to care.

In math, we went crazy with Powers of Ten.
Decimals, fractions, coordinates, and then
Multiplication, place value, and volume too.
Geometry, rounding, expressions... WHEW!

Thank you for sharing, from the bottom of my heart.
Because watching you grow was my favorite part!
It's hard to believe that this schoolyear is through.
I'm awfully glad I got to spend it with YOU!
